Christmas 2008

December 2008 by Tony & Tami Buthman.

If you missed the Christmas party, you missed out on a wonderful evening. Charles and Ellen graciously hosted the party at their home again this year. The chapter owes them a huge thank you for their hospitality.

As usual there was delicious food, warm conversation, and good natured competition for the most coveted white elephant gift. It is a pleasure to belong to such a fun group of people. Everyone worked together to set up and clean up, making the task easy.

The party was an excellent end for a very productive and fun year. Merry Christmas to everyone and we look forward to seeing you all on the trail in the spring.

Tony and Tami

(This article is a reprint from March 2007. If you have any recipes you'd like to see here please send them to newsletter@sbbchidaho.org)

This new feature is at the suggestion of Rob Adams and I think it is a good one. There are a lot of good cooks in the Squaw Butte Chapter so we hope they will share their knowledge and contribute to this column. If not we'll get recipes wherever we can find them. 'Cause as our late friend Bob Howard used to say, "There's nothing better after a day in the saddle than good groceries."

We'll start with a recipe so simple even a pilgrim can put it together and make a meal fit for a king! Sally has made it many times and it is always a hit. It can be cooked in a standard casserole or pan but we prefer the Dutch.

Sally's Camp Chicken

Coals: 12 on the bottom & 8 on the top

Ingredients:

- 2-4 pounds chicken, your favorite, thighs, breasts, quarters or a whole chicken quartered
- 1 package dry Onion soup mix
- 1 8 oz. jar apricot jam
- 1 bottle, or 8 oz., Catalina or Russian salad dressing

Brown the chicken in the Dutch with a little olive oil. Mix the other ingredients in a bowl and pour over the browned chicken (you can drain the grease first if you like, I don't). Cook for at least one hour (or until the chicken is done through) and the sauce has thickened.

Serve with steamed white or wild rice. I guarantee there won't be any leftovers.
